AS PART OF HER GRADUATE work in mass communication at San Jose State, Judv Rickard recently sought opinions of Campbell Press readers through a questionnaire of 192 subscribers, selected at random.

The survey was conducted in April. The results were then tabulated and included in the paper Judy submitted for her class, "Speech 170 -- Communication in Contemporary Society".

Judy's paper bore the impressive title of "Ethos and Source Credibility as Factors of News Believability".

Actually the questionnaire was merely a supplement to Miss Rickard's comprehensive research on the credibility of newspapers.

Her bibliography, for example, consisted of almost four pages. The paper she submitted totalled 28 typewritten pages of which about eight pages were devoted to the conclusions developed from her survey of The Campbell Press.

JUDY DECIDED TO EMbark on her study because, as she points out in the first page, "As a trained journalist and a student of communication research, I have noticed problems in media believability as a message encoder and accoder.

"I have seen my stories appear in print incorrectly, due to production errors. I have seen others' reports of the same event differ greatly from my eyewitness reports. I have often doubted the truth of newspaper and other media accounts of events"....

She asked the question: "How does the general public view newspapers as credible sources?"

All her research led to the inevitable question which became the meat of her thesis, "Do newspaper readers believe their home paper?"

So she determined to study a particular newspaper and test its effectiveness as a source based on the reaction of its readers.

And she picked The Campbell Press.

-0-

DON'T WORRY, WE have no intention of trying to condense Judy's 28-page report into this column, even if we could.

Obviously, her paper contains a great deal of interesting information for those of us in the profession but would be boring to most of you.

However, the information gleaned from what she termed her "tiny" survey, Judy suggests, could aid The Campbell Press staff in making the newspaper a more credible publication.

And we think she is right.

She concludes that "ethos and character image factors are important to consider in persuasion and attitude change, as well as the dissemination of information."

We think that means in effect that the newspaper should be concerned with the "makeup" of its readers with respect to their special characteristics, as well as the "makeup" of the paper as far as news is concerned.

We think.

ANYWAY, THE QUESTionnaires were sent to 192 subscribers of the Press with a covering letter from Judy explaining what it was all about and a self-addressed, stamped envelope enclosed.

It was emphasized that it was all confidential. No names would be used and no record would be kept of those who filled out the questionnaire.

The returns were disappointing in numbers. Only 39 or about 20% of the 192 responded. (Through an error in addressing, about 40 of the letters were returned because of improper addresses. We had neglected to caution Judy

ESTIMATED AT $175,000

City hall street job gets okay

Bids for two more phases in the civic center complex overall construction, one for the inside and the other for the outside, were authorized by the City Council Monday night involving an estimated $240,000 outlay.

The "inside" concerned the furnishings for the new city hall for which $68,000 has been budgeted while the "outside" was related to the street improvements in the civic center area estimated at $175,000.

Specifications for both were approved and will go out to bids.

Prior to approving the "specs" for the city hall furnishings, Miles Tully, of the Campbell Office Machines, who has been acting as an unpaid consultant for the city, presented a comprehensive report on the furnishings that were needed in the new city hall.

Tully showed samples of the type of furnishings that were recommended and outlined in detail, office by office, how they would be used. His report also included how some of the furniture now in the old city hall would be utilized, and emphasized the importance of having furnishings that were easily maintained.

New furnishings would consist mainly of desks, chairs, conference tables and files and on hand were three manufacturing representatives to further describe the equipment.

The impressed city councilmen indicated their appreciation of the more than 300 man-hours spent by Tully and his staff in the preliminary work and approved the specifications as presented. City officials indicated that they felt certain that the bids would be under the $68,000 figure budgeted.

STREET PROJECT

Bill Wren and Bill Helms, of the public works department, described the street improvement project for the city hall and explained that Third Street, through the cooperation of the school district, would be included in the project which is estimated to cost $175,000.

The area includes Grant to Third; Third from Grant to Campbell, and First and Cen-

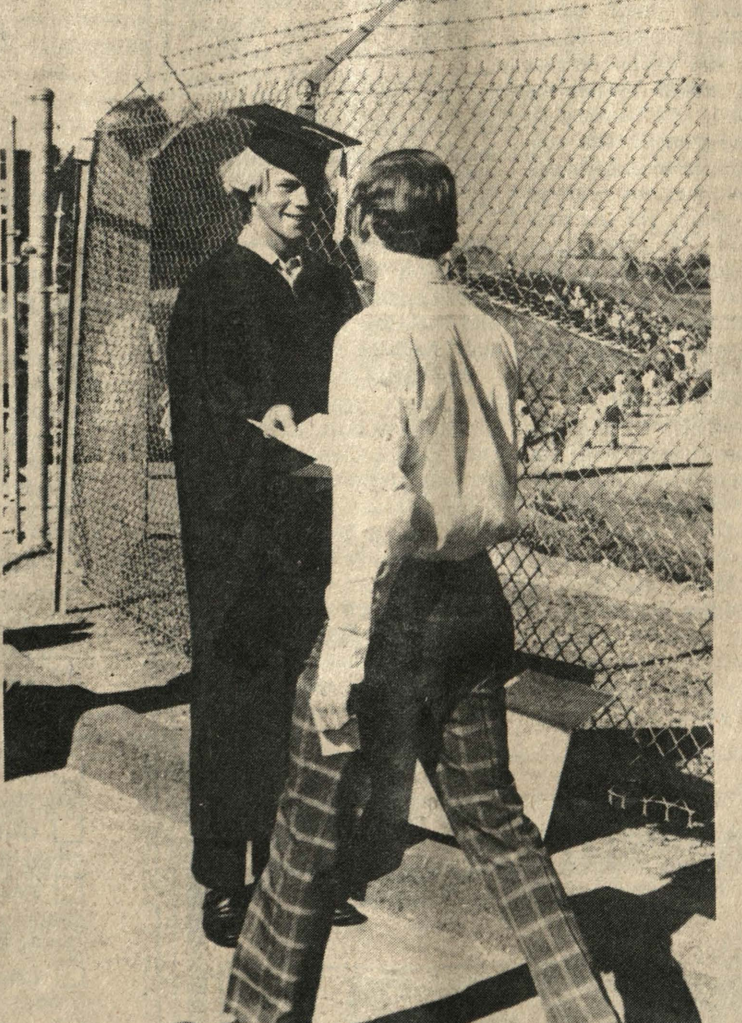
City population reaches 25,250

Campbell's population is now 25,250, according to a special census conducted by the state finance office, Wally Byron, city building official, reported this week.

The special census was made at the request of city officials. Byron estimates that the increase will result in approximately $14,000, in state subventions that are paid on the basis of population.

The federal census last year indicated the population was 24,400, but that figure had been adjusted upward because of errors that were discovered in the computation.



QUIET PROTEST---Parents and friends who attended Westmont High School graduation last Friday were greeted by about a dozen seniors who were distributing a hand-out entitled "Graduation 1971, An Alternative Viewpoint." The cover design of the hand-out featured a cap and gowned student on puppet strings receiving his diploma.

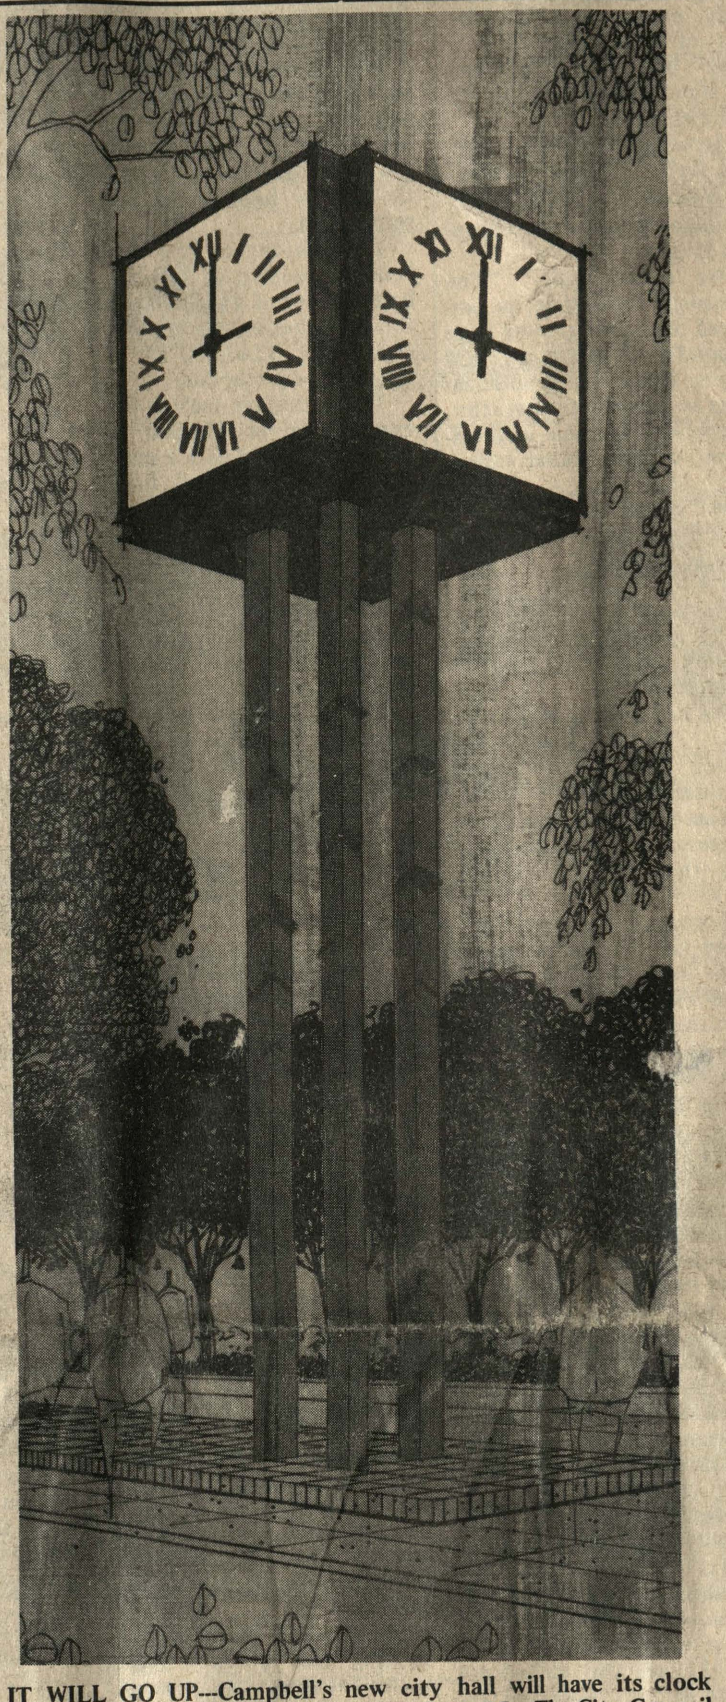
The pamphlet criticized the traditional graduation service and then went on to question the validity of the students' education.

Some of the participating students, such as Dave Charlet shown handing out a leaflet, donned their caps and gowns and accepted their diplomas, while others chose not to be in the ceremony.

One of the onlookers took notes of the comments of the audience, which ranged from "...lots of fine points..." to those of a former student, "I didn't think students would write something like this because graduation for me was something to look forward to."

One of the points of the pamphlet was the method by which the student speakers were selected. This received favorable comment by several.

Some reacted with disgust of hostility, read a few lines of the circular and then returned them to the distributors.



IT WILL GO UP---Campbell's new city hall will have its clock tower by the time of the dedication on Sept. 25. The City Council ruled Monday night after Norm Paul, Chamber of Commerce president, reported that although the fund drive was short about $1700 of the $4450 cost, the balance that was needed would be underwritten and raised by the CofC later in the year when the time would be more opportune for fund drives.

The amount that has been raised ($2750) will be placed in a special account to be used exclusively for the tower. After approving the CofC proposal, the Council appointed Mrs. Jeanette Watson to be chairman of a committee that would decide what historical material should be placed in the cornerstone of the tower.

Building permits for first five months top 1970 by $2.4 million

Building permits in Campbell for the first five months of 1971 exceed the same period last year by $2.4 million, despite the fact that the total for May this year was less than May, 1970, according to Wally Byron, building official.

Permits issued in May this year came to $719,150, while last year the total for the month was $851,357.

But the five-month total for all permits this year is $5,940,479 compared to $3,528,965 for the same period last year.

Starting with swimming pools (15 for $58,780 this year compared to 12 for $38,600 last year) and extending through multiples, the totals for each category are ahead of last year. (There were six permits for swimming pools in May this year for $27,180).

There have been 12 permits for multiples this year for a total of $3,348,976 compared to only three last year for $1,548,814. One permit was issued this May for a 12-unit complex for Robert S. Anderson for $136,795 at 720 West Valley Dr.

Last year there were nine commercial building permits issued in the first five months for $1,313,705 compared to 14 this year to date for $1,600,191.

There were two permits this May in the commercial category. One was issued to Fred Sahadi for construction in the PruneYard for $374,651 and the other went to J&J Aquarium in the Campbell Plaza for $1,754.

There were two industrial building permits issued last month for a total of $100,200 and nine for the first five months for $571,043. Last year for the first five months there were seven such permits for $439,339.

Industrial permits in May went to Ziegler & Hoffman at 535 Salmar for $79,200 and R. J. Zipse Paving at 75 Cristich Ln. for $21,000.

Permits for alterations and additions this year have total-

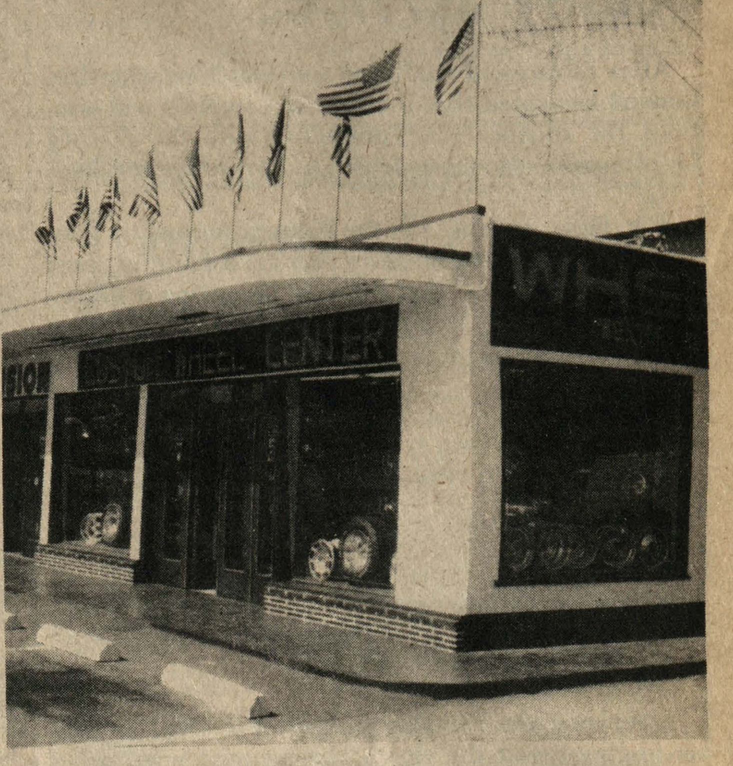
CITY OWNS IT—BUT---Although the City of Campbell purchased the property (above) on Harrison Ave. some time ago, Ray Stroppa, the former owner, has been reluctant to turn it over to the city. Stroppa still remained on the property after the expiration of two extensions in time that had been granted. The city then took the matter to court. The judge ruled that the city was entitled to rent ($3.30 per day) from the former owner for the time past the extensions. City Attorney Bob Dempster informed the City Council Monday that the city is now in the process of taking the necessary steps to evict its unwanted "tenant". The property is part of the land acquired for the new library.



JURY WILL DECIDE

Can American flags be used as pennants?

Does the flying of nine American flags in lieu of illegal pennants at a place of business daily indicate a patriotic zeal?

Or is the multi-flag-flying exhibition motivated by spite against the city for forcing the removal of the pennants?

That is apparently what a jury must decide next Tuesday, June 22, in the Los Gatos-Campbell-Saratoga municipal court in the case of City of Campbell vs. James Craig, of Custom Wheel Center, 2501 Winchester Ave.

Some time ago Craig began flying nine pennants at his sports car accessories shop to call attention to his establishment.

When he was directed by the city planning department to remove the pennants, because they were in violation of a city ordinance, Craig replaced the pennants with American flags.

He then was cited for violation of the ordinance and demanded a jury trial.

Bob Dempster, city attorney, reported to the City Council on Monday night that the trial was set for next Tuesday, but warned the Council that it could possibly be a sticky matter because of the alleged patriotic issue involved.

Councilmen Ed Rogers and Bill Podgorsek maintained, however, that in their opinion no patriotism was involved in this case, but merely spite and commercialism.

In their opinion, it was an outright violation of city ordinance and should be treated as such, and they disliked the idea of using the American flag in that manner.

The case goes to trial next Tuesday.

CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS

Six-year plans top $5-million

A $5-million plus six-year capital improvement program for the City of Campbell extending from 1971-72 through 1976-77 will be presented by City Manager Bob Stephens to the Planning Commission next Monday, June 21.

Following the Planning Commission's action, the program will go to the City Council for approval with any modifications that the planning commissioner will include in their recommendation.

The capital improvement program totals $6,900,380, if the projects now in progress ($1,862,900) are included. (city hall $1,186,100; service center, $118,800; library, $244,000; parks, $314,000.)

According to Stephens, the program represents the best judgment of the staff in establishing priorities for those projects that can be financed over the next six years.

Stephens stresses that the program is, for a large part, merely a guideline. Many of the projects that have been recommended will be dependent on non-city resources and no bond issues not presently approved, he emphasizes.

Stephens points out, for example, that federal funds totalling $546,700 and state allocations of $645,000 must be obtained. Voter approval will have to be given, in addition, for $1,200,000 in bonds (streets, $750,000; parks, $250,000 and fire station,

George Vierhus fills vacancy on Grand Jury

George Vierhus, editor and publisher of The Campbell Press, was named to the Santa Clara County Grand Jury last Friday to fill the vacancy that had been created by the resignation of Dr. Y. Arturo Cabrero. Vierhus will serve for the remainder of the year.

Dr. Cabrero, a San Jose State professor, has accepted a position in Colorado.

Vierhus was one of 30 nominated in January when 19 were chosen to serve for the year. On Friday, he was picked by lot from the 11 remaining on the panel.

According to local authorities, the selection of Vierhus as a grand juror marks the first time that a resident of Campbell has served on that body in recent years.

Editorial

County services

After months of study and soul-searching, the City Council has ruled that the City of Campbell will continue for another year contracting with the county for communication dispatching and answering services.

The basic reasons for the Council action to stay with the county for one more year are economic ones, plus the added point that it would be cutting it pretty thin timewise for the city to be ready to go on July 1 with its own program.

It has been estimated that the City of Campbell could operate its own system for practically the same cost as the county will charge this municipality this next year.

Campbell has the necessary equipment which was purchased some time ago, and the major cost would be for the employment of three additional personnel at $30,000 for the next year.

Last year the county charged $16,488 for the services rendered the city. The fee next year, however, will be raised to $31,778 and indications are that another substantial raise will be forthcoming the following year.

County officials maintain that the increases in charges is based on a cost survey of the operation, and that the communications system must operate under the working capital funding plan. In other words, all agencies that use the county system must pay their pro-rate share of the cost per message unit.

County officials further maintain that the actual cost for the services given Campbell the past year, based on the cost study, would be something like $62,359, almost twice as much as the city estimates it will cost to operate its own system.

Originally the county people indicated that the raise this year would be greater than what they have now submitted. Thus city officials were fairly certain they could save money on their own.

The revised figures of the county, however, reduced next year's charges to a point that were almost equal to the city's estimate. So the city decided to stay with the county for the next year.

As we have pointed out before, this whole matter of contracting with the county for services raises a complicated fiscal question as to what basic services the taxpayer who resides within a city is entitled to from the county.

Keep in mind that [illegible] county general tax rate is the same for city dwellers as for those who live in unincorporated areas.

That means, according to the way we figure, if a county service is financed from the general tax, then it follows that everyone in the county is entitled to the same degree of service.

And, if a city wants additional services above the basic ones, the city then should pay extra.

That, of course, is what allegedly has happened in the county communication system. The county people maintain that it costs more than $60,000 to give the citizens of Campbell the dispatching services that are required for the police, fire and public works department.

Our question is then, what basic service do the citizens of Campbell, as county taxpayers, receive for their tax dollar from county communications?

If the City of Campbell has no use for the county dispatching service, will the citizens of Campbell have their county tax rate cut proportionally?

You know the answer to that. It will never happen.

We firmly believe that there is a desperate need to take a long, hard look at the county services that are being offered ostensibly for all residents of the county; but, in effect, are giving those who reside outside a city a better break.

City residents in effect are subsidizing services in many cases for people outside the city limits.

Aside from the economic factors involved in the county communication situation, there are a number of advantages for the City of Campbell to have its own system.

For example, the city will be able to give a direct response to the citizens of Campbell around the clock. There would be established a continuity reporting system. Clerk-dispatchers could assist in classifying, typing and filing reports. Response time would be cut because the local dispatchers are familiar with the city. There would be improved coordination between police and fire units.

We sincerely believe that it would be to this city's advantage to have its own dispatching system.

We also feel that there is a need for an overhauling of the city-county relationship with respect to services that a county agency offers.

For sure we do not need duplication in services.

But by the same token, city residents should not have to subsidize services for county residents.

on the overlapping postal districts.)

About 97 of those receiving the forms did not bother to fill 'em out.

We had expected a bigger response. If you recall, at the time of the survey, the community was in the throes of a heated school board election.

A number of our readers during that campaign had already expressed their opinions of this paper's "credibility" because they opposed the stand The Press had taken in the election.

Actually The Press fared very well, according to Judy. "In general", she reports, "the character image of the Campbell Press is favorable."

We quote again: "The Campbell Press, then, is perceived by those readers who responded to the survey, and others based on generalizations as credible, trustworthy, competent, dynamic, authoritative, and somewhat objective."

We gather from that conclusion we are in the ballpark anyway.

-0-

HOW WERE THE NAMES picked?

We had nothing to do with that. We still haven't the vaguest idea of who received the questionnaires.

The Press has 48 carrier routes of varying sizes spread over the Campbell community.

According to Judy, she pulled the fifth and fifteenth name from the front of each route list, as well as the fifth and fifteenth name from the back of each route list.

The envelopes that contained the questionnaire were simply addressed to "Campbell Press Subscriber" at each selected address.

Questionnaires were mailed April 12 and return was requested by April 23.

We have learned of the 39 that were used in the survey, 20 were from women and 19 were from men. Ages ranged from 24 to 67, and 14 were Democrats and 23 were Republicans; 28 indicated they were Protestant and nine Catholic.

Seven respondents indicated family incomes less than $10,000 per year, while 32 indicated annual family incomes of more than $10,000.

The education level question showed that all had attended some college and 16 were college graduates. Two men indicated they had received advanced degrees.

Subscription lengths ranged from two months to 25 years.

-0-

THE SURVEY CONtained 15 statements to be rated on a five-point linear rating scale.

In addition, there were 17 pairs of "polar adjectives" on a seven-step differential scale.

For example, "I believe the Campbell Press to be: "right-wrong, honest-dishonest, etc."

Judy then took the responses and tallied them to draw her basic conclusions. It sounds quite complicated, how she did it.

We won't try to explain simply because we don't understand it.

But we were glad to know that our character-image was favorable.

-0-

SOME OF THE 39 REspondents, took the time to write comments on the forms. One party used the whole back page for her thoughts of The Press.

The comments under "why do you subscribe to the Campbell Press", were varied.

These included such gems for their reasons: "To read the weekly scandal; I like to know what is happening on the local scene; For information on community and school issues; Feel sorry for the carrier; Keep paper boy employed; Enjoy Local news; Wife's request; Habit; It's a home paper; Subscribe because of legal notices printed; don't expect anything more than a small town "Scandal sheet"; Want ads, sales; I just cancelled; Because all my neighbors do; ...."

A majority of those answering that question indicated that they took the paper because of the local news that was in it.

And, you know something, that is the basic reason for our existence.

-0-

THE PARTY WHO TOOK the back page to write her comments raised some interesting points. Here are some excerpts:

"The Campbell Press is a hometown paper. I sort of know it will be slanted on news items, because George has a lot of friends in town and this is where he gets the news ...."

Later she adds, "when you have one man as reporter-owner-printer, it's human nature to stick by your friends" .....Thank God. (Ed. note: Brent thinks "printer" should be corrected, as we have never been able to master that phase of the operation to any degree.)

But let's continue: "I sometimes don't agree with George, but I think the Campbell Press is a pretty good little paper for the price. I look forward to it on Wednesday, even if George is blinded by friendship at times....."

We are still not sure whether that's a compliment or not.

But it is nice to know we do have friends.

$200,000) if the entire program is to be carried out.

The projected six-year capital improvement program envisions $625,000 to be spent on major and minor streets and $1,855,765 for streets and traffic safety, which includes $750,000 for the completion of the north loop street which would require the authorization and issuance of bonds.

Deleted from that phase was $1 million which would be used for right-of-way acquisitions for Highway 17-Campbell Ave. interchange. The deletion was made in light of the current state highway department's priorities and the city's financial status.

The program includes $621,500 for development of city parks and $773,000 for the library. Completion of the library is contingent upon the county funding the current deficit.

Completion of the unfinished portion of the city hall at a cost of $136,000 and the construction of a new fire station for $246,000 are in the six-year projection.

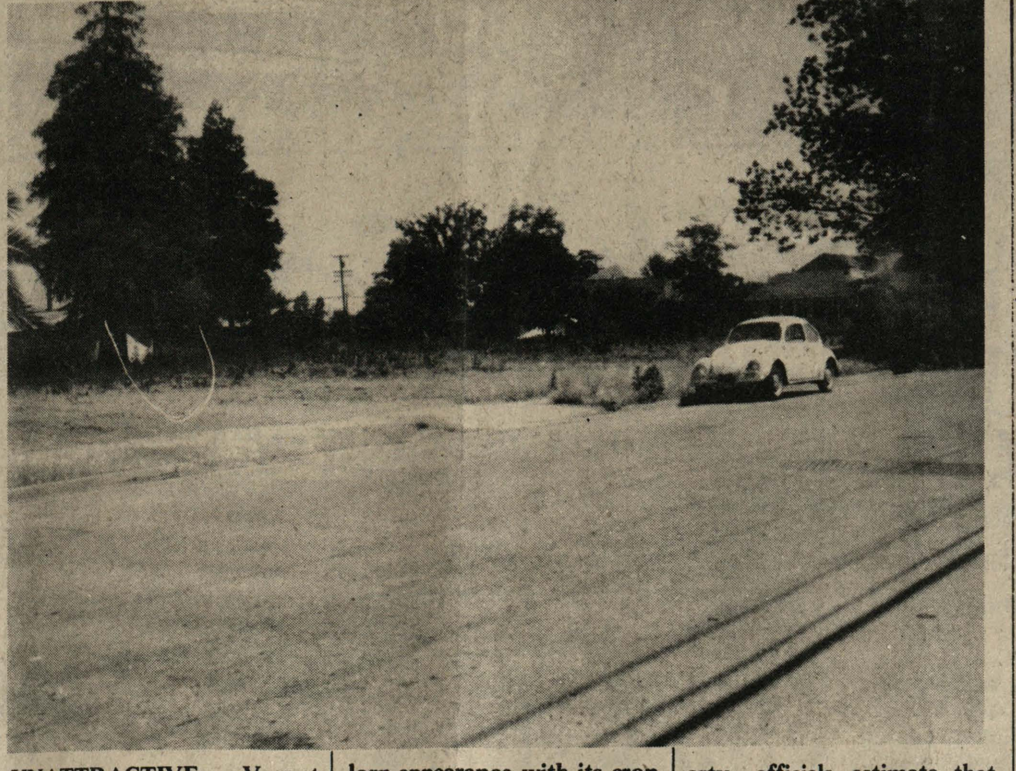
Other outlays include the expenditure of $29,000 to provide the city with a small computer for payroll functions and $43,200 for equipment for the storage of traffic accident information.

Storm drains are listed for $132,650 and street lights and traffic signals for $175,000.

Through the use of annual PG&E allocations, the undergrounding of utilities will continue over the next six years at an estimated cost of $228,000.

The program also includes the last two payments on the service center totalling $76,000 and the purchase of needed heavy equipment for $92,875.

FATHER'S DAY IS JUNE 20



UNATTRACTIVE — Vacant city-owned property across from both the old and new city halls on Central Ave. acquired as the site for the new library, gives a somewhat forlorn appearance with its crop of weeds, as the City of Campbell awaits a decision from the county on the funding of the library. Although the city has acquired all the needed property, officials estimate that the county needs to find another $200,000 before it can proceed with its share of financing the new structure.

tral between Grant and Campbell. It also includes that portion of the "north loop" from Central to First.

The project includes the installation of 17 street lights, 11 of which will be in the city hall area. The engineers suggested that the 11 street lights in the city hall area be of a more decorative type than the others. They would be only 10-feet high and of a different texture than the 24-foot high standard lights. However, the City Council directed the staff to get bids on both types.

They wanted to know whether the "fancy lamps" would be worth the chips.

BUDGET

The Council on Monday held a routine public hearing on the $4.3 million preliminary budget that has been drafted by City Manager Bob Stephens and then set two budget study sessions, one on Tuesday, June 15, and the other on Saturday, June 19. The preliminary budget is slated to be approved on June 28 and the final one in August.

At the first budget study session held last night (after press time) a divided City Council was expected to put back into the budget $3330 for a national league meeting either in Honolulu or Washington, D.C. The item had been deleted in the city manager's first draft.

FEDERAL GRANT

City Manager Stephens was directed by the Council to apply for a $39,784 federal traffic safety grant which would include special equipment. It was explained that the state would match the federal funds and it would be an outright grant to the city.

The Council also approved the communications contract with the county for the next year at $31,778. Last week the councilmen voted to stay with the county for one more year rather than to set up the city's separate system this year.

SINGLE FAMILY

Approved also by the City Council on Monday was the tentative subdivision map submitted by George S. Nolte & Associates for 39 single-family lots on a 9.1 acre parcel located near McCoy and Harriett and west of San Tomas Rd.

This is the first single-family development submitted within the city limits for a number of years, and Councilman Bill Podgorsek, long a champion for more R-1 and fewer apartments, suggested that the city flags show "fly high" because of it.

Approved Monday was the new salary scale for Police Captain Don Burr, acting chief since Police Chief John Morgan was stricken on Feb. 13. In his capacity as acting chief, Burr will be paid $1600 effective on July 1. His present salary is $1470.

The Council also approved the pay scale for the position of custodian that was recently authorized for the new city hall. The salary range will be $576–$702.

He has been on the Dean's List at CMC, was a member of the Forensic Team; editor of the "LIberator," a college publication; winner of Siddon's Club Dramatic Writing Contest; participated in cross-country track; and was announcer, engineer, and radio minister at KSPC, the college radio station. Future plans are uncertain at this time.

Chamberlin graduated Magna Cum Laude, with Departmental Honors in Political Science (his major). He is a graduate of Campbell High School, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean R. Chamberlin of 103 N. Carlyn Ave.

He has been tutoring elementary school children during his four years at CMC, and will attend a graduate school in the near future.

Ninety-nine of the 200 graduating seniors were designated as honor students in the commencement ceremony. Also, for the first time in the history of the college, a graduate obtained a perfect 4.0 G.P.A. (grade point average) during his four years of attendance. He is John Anthony Strain, economics major from Anaheim, California.

Claremont Men's College, one of the six Claremont Colleges, specializes in public affairs. Nearly one-half of the 800-member student body majors in political science or economics. Three-fourths of the 1971 graduating class plan to enter graduate or professional schools in the fall.

SANTA CLARA

SANTA CLARA--Paul M. Hogan, 22-year-old economics major from San Francisco was senior speaker for the Class of 1971 at the University of Santa Clara.

Hogan's address was given at the 120th annual commencement of the university, held recently in the Mission Gardens.

UCSB HONORS

Three students from the Campbell area were among 1444 honored by placement on the winter quarter, 1971, dean's list at the University of California at Santa Barbara.

Requirements for this honor are grades of B-plus or better.

The following students were named on the list:

Gary Lee Fischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Fischer, 1640 Dell Ave.; Ann Marcia Hemmings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hemmings, 1377 Bent Dr.; Lynda Jadeane Tuttle, daughter of Mrs. Nadeane H. Tuttle.

Foundation will administer scholarships

West Valley College Foundation, a private non-profit corporation which will administer scholarship donations, property bequests and other monies donated to the college, is now a reality.

James P. Hardy, superintendent-president of the college, recently announced that the first financial contribution to the foundation, totaling $6,250, came from two local Sunsweet Growers' groups.

William Cilker, representing the Campbell-Los Gatos Sunsweet Growers' Association, presented a check for $5,000 and R. V. Garrod of the Cupertino-Saratoga Sunsweet Growers' Association donated $1,250.

The two contributions were put in the foundation's newly created West Valley Sunsweet Growers' Scholarship Fund, from which an annual scholarship award of $250 will be made to a student residing in the Campbell or Los Gatos high school districts. Money for the scholarship will come from income derived from investment by the foundation of the initial donation.

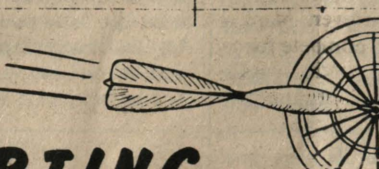
BEST DRESSED---Awards for the best costumed dogs in the kid's dog show at Kirkwood Plaza were given to a hula girl, a superdog and a patriotic dog. Costumes included babies, graduates, Santa Claus, and assorted hats and boots. One dog, elegantly costumed in a gaily painted box, never made it to the ring---the box fell apart! Left to right, Lindley Lack, first; Katy Williams, second and Kim Stadmiller, third.



DARTING AROUND

with Tom Carroll

The battle for the East Bay Divisional title of the Northern California Darts Assn. pitted the South Bay Champion Scarlett La Rue's against the Chabot League's Courtyard II Prosecutors and the Diablo League's Bel Air Club. Played as a 36 game round-robin, it was divided into matches of six games each.

By the luck of the draw, the first match was between the Courtyard of Hayward and the Bel Air Club of Concord. Each team won three games with the Courtyard's Ted Channell hitting a 123 and Tony Chavarria popping a ton (100).

The second match was the Bel Air Club vs Scarlett La Rue. La Rue's team captain Jim Macredes sparked his team with a 121, a ton and a 17 dart game to take the match, four games to two. Bel Air's Ken Exley popped a ton away and a 140, but to no avail.

Next, the La Rue's took on the Courtyard. Dave Pena got the La Rue's away with a 112 in the team game, but the Courtyard's Don Halter popped a ton and the Courtyard won the game. They also won three singles games to take the match four games to two.

At the halfway point, the Courtyard was ahead, having won seven games. The La Rues were next with six and the Bel Air trailed with five wins.

SECOND HALF

The second round match between the Bel Air and the Courtyard was a repeat of the first, ending in a three-three tie. Tony Chavarria won a 14 dart game.

Three-three was also the score for the second round match between the Bel Air and the La Rue's. Jim Macredes popped a 140, went bust on an 85 out, but still won the game. The Bel Air's Ken Exley had a 92 away in winning his game.

At this point the Bel Air was out of the running. Both teams in the final match could surpass their eleven games won.

FINAL MATCH

It was now a battle between the same two teams that had fought for the East Bay Divisional title last season. The team game saw three tons shot. Kip Fanjoy for the La Rue and Gary Barker and Tony Chavarria for the Courtyard. The La Rue's took the game and the score was 10—10.

Tony Chavarria shot a 107 out to defeat John Glaze, but Jim Macredes countered with a 13 dart game against Gary Barker. Mike Lanin defeated Dave Pena, giving the Courtyard the edge.

The La Rue's Kip Fanjoy lost to Don Halter putting the Courtyard ahead 13—11. With only one more game to play, the Courtyard was declared the winner, and the East Bay Divisional Champion. They now go on to play Primrose Lanes I for the Falstaff Cup.

BIGGEST THERE---Although there are bigger dogs than German Shepherds, they seemed to have the edge on size at the Kirkwood Plaza kids dog show. First prize went to Rick Johnson, 1110 Hacienda and "Banner", on the left. Second largest was "Erich" owned by Darien Provence and third was "Bo" owned by Martha Auman. Rick and Banner went on to win best in show honors.

SMARTEST---The largest and most diversified class in competition at the Ken-L-Ration kid's dog show at Kirkwood Plaza recently was the competition for "trick" dog. Left to right are Mark Olson, 18349 Purdue Dr., with "Rama", his boxer, who placed first. Second was Dawn Groten, 4152 Acapulco Dr., Campbell, with "Joey", a poodle and third was Irene Schneider, of Saratoga, with "Katy", a Labrador retriever. Mark lost his chance to compete for best in show by taking "Rama" home to get her a drink of water!

VERY SMALLEST---It was hard to say for sure, but it seems as though the handler of the smallest dog in a recent Kirkwood Plaza kid's dog show, was also the smallest youngster. Quincy Wartena from Morgan Hill and her Yorkshire Terrier "Corky", who is almost hidden, received their trophy from Jerry Roberts of Saratoga. Placing second was Kim Henson, with "Penny" a white toy poodle, and third was Terrie Sokol with "Mini," a chihuahua.

TOP DOG---Joe Lombardi, left, of Kirkwood Plaza, presents first prize to Rick Johnson of Campbell, whose Shepherd, "Banner", was adjudged "best" in the kid's dog show at Kirkwood Plaza recently. The Saturday events included St. Bernard cart rides, an obedience demonstration and a canine fashion show. Shown also with Rick is Mayor Ralph Doetsch, one of the show judges. Other judges included Mike Bavilacqua, president, Santa Clara Dog Training Club, Inc.; Lynn Kirk of Kirkwood Construction Co.; Jerry Roberts of Saratoga, and Sally Howe, Campbell Press.

REDEMPTION: Bonds issued pursuant to Schedule A maturing by their terms on or before July 15, 1985 are not subject to redemption prior to their respective stated maturities. Bonds issued pursuant to Schedule A maturing by their terms on or after July 15, 1986 are subject to redemption prior to their respective stated maturities, at the option of the City, on any interest payment date on or after July 15, 1985, as a whole, or in part in inverse numerical order, upon payment of the principal amount thereof and interest accrued thereon to the date of redemption, together with a premium equal to one-quarter of one per cent (1/4 of 1%) of such principal amount for each whole year and any fraction of a year remaining between the date of redemption and the stated maturity date thereof. Bonds issued pursuant to Schedule B are not subject to redemption prior to their respective stated maturities.

INTEREST RATE: Maximum six per cent (6%) per annum, payable annually the first year on July 15, 1972, and semi-annually thereafter on January 15 and July 15 in each year. Bidders must specify that rate of interest which the bonds hereby offered for sale shall bear. Bidders may specify any number of separate interest rates irrespective of the maturities of the bonds, and the same rate or rates may be repeated as often as desired; provided, however, that (i) the difference between the highest and lowest coupon rates specified in any bid shall not exceed one per cent (1%); (ii) each interest rate specified must be in a multiple of 1/20 of one per cent and a zero rate of interest cannot be specified; (iii) no bond shall bear more than one rate of interest, no interest payment shall be evidenced by more than one coupon and supplemental coupons will not be permitted; (iv) each bond shall bear interest from its date to its stated maturity date at the interest rate specified in the bid; (v) all bonds of either issue of the same maturity shall bear the same rate of interest; and (vi) any premium must be paid in bank funds as part of the purchase price, and no bid will be accepted which provides for the cancellation and surrender of any interest coupon or for the waiver of interest or other concession by the bidder as a substitute for bank funds. Bids which do not conform to the terms of this paragraph will be rejected.

PAYMENT: Both principal and interest are payable in lawful money of the United States of America at the principal office of Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association, in San Francisco, California, or at holder's option, at the principal office of First National City Bank, in New York, or at the office of The First National Bank of Chicago, in Chicago, Illinois.

EXECUTION AND REGISTRATION: Coupon bonds will be issued by the City. The bonds will be executed by the manual signature of at least one official authorized to execute the bonds. The bonds are registrable as to principal only or as to both principal and interest. Registered bonds are subject to de-registration and re-registration as provided in the resolutions authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: The 1967 Municipal Improvement Bonds, Series C are authorized by vote of two-thirds of the qualified voters voting at a special bond election for the purpose of authorizing bonds for the acquisition, construction and completion of various municipal improvements for the City of Campbell, and the 1969 Park Bonds, Series C are authorized by vote of two-thirds of the qualified voters voting at a special bond election for the purpose of authorizing bonds for the acquisition, construction and completion of park and recreation facilities for the City of Campbell.

SECURITY: The bonds are general obligations of the City of Campbell and the City has power and is obligated to levy ad valorem taxes for the payment of the bonds and the interest thereon upon all property within the City of Campbell subject to taxation by the City (except certain personal property, which is taxable at limited rates), without limitation of rate or amount.

TAX EXEMPT STATUS: In the event that prior to the delivery of the bonds (i) the income received by any private holder from bonds of the same type and character shall be declared to be taxable (either at the time of such declaration or at any future date) under any federal income tax laws, either by the terms of such laws or by ruling of a federal income tax authority or official which is followed by the Internal Revenue Service, or by decision of any federal court, or (ii) any federal income tax law is adopted which will have a substantial adverse tax effect on holders of the bonds as such, the successful bidder may, at his option, prior to the tender of the bonds by the City, be relieved of his obligation under the contract to purchase the bonds and in such case the deposit accompanying his bid will be returned.

LEGAL OPINION: The legal opinion of Messrs. Orrick, Herrington, Rowley & Sutcliffe of San Francisco, California, approving the validity of the bonds will be furnished to the successful bidder without charge. A copy of the legal opinion, certified by the officer in whose office the original is filed, will be printed on each bond without charge to the successful bidder.

TERMS OF SALE

Selection of Schedule Pursuant to Which Bonds Will Be Issued: The City Council will not issue the bonds pursuant to Schedule B in the event that there are any bids for the bonds pursuant to Schedule A. In the event that there are bids for the bonds only pursuant to Schedule B, the City Council will issue the bonds pursuant to such schedule.

Highest Bid in the Selected Schedule: The bonds in the schedule selected by the City Council pursuant to the preceding paragraph will be awarded to the highest bidder for both bond issues in one lot bidding for such schedule, considering the interest rate or rates specified and the premium offered, if any, for both bond issues. The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the City would be required to pay from the date of the bonds to the respective maturity dates at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the City. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. All interest shall be computed on a 360-day year basis. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the City.

Right of Rejection: The City Council reserves the right in its discretion to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

Prompt Award: The City Council will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for the receipt of proposals, unless such time of award is waived by the successful bidder.

Prompt Delivery: Delivery of the bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the San Francisco principal office of Bank of America National Trust and Savings Association, in San Francisco, California, as soon as the bonds can be prepared, but not prior to the date of the bonds. Payment for the bonds must be made in bank funds immediately available to the City in San Francisco, California.

Right of Cancellation: The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the City shall fail to execute the bonds and tender the same for delivery within sixty (60) days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

Form of Bid: All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds of both bond issues hereby offered for sale in one lot, and issued in accordance with a designated selected schedule of bond maturities; and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Each bid, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the City Council of the City of Campbell and endorsed "Proposal for both the City of Campbell 1967 Municipal Improvement Bonds, Series C and the City of Campbell 1969 Park Bonds, Series C." All bids must either be mailed to the City Council at the City Hall, 75 North Central Avenue, Campbell. California, in time to be received by 8:00 P.M. on June 29, 1971, or delivered to the City Council at said place by said time on such date.

Bid Check: With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $10,000 drawn on a bank or trust company transacting business in the State of California, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the City of Campbell to secure the City from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. Checks of all bidders (except the successful bidder) will be returned by the City by mail promptly following the sale date above specified. No interest will be paid upon the deposit made by the successful bidder.

Estimate of Net Interest Cost: Bidders are requested, but not required, to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the City on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the City.

Official Statement: The City has caused an official statement to be prepared, a copy of which will be furnished upon request addressed to Rafferty, Guerin & Company, 534 Canal Street, San Rafael, California 94901, the City's financing consultant.

There is no controversy or litigation pending concerning the validity of the above bond issues, the corporate existence of the City, or the title of the officers thereof to their respective offices, and the City will furnish to the successful bidder a no-litigation certificate certifying to the foregoing as of and at the time of the delivery of the bonds.

Early June ceremony

MRS. SAMUEL D. SMALLEY

Frances Dianne Fink, 175 Shelley Ave., became the bride of Samuel D. Smalley in ceremonies conducted by the bride's brother in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, recently.

Dianne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland L. Fink, wore a full length white satin dress which was appliqued down the front with auroraborealis sequins. A fingertip illusion veil, with a crown of seed pears and lace, completed the attire.

She was attended by Mrs. Charlotte Grubbs, sister of the groom, who was matron of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Wanda Logan and Mrs. Lynn Allen. Cindy Smalley, niece of the groom, served as flower girl.

The groom is the son of S. O. Smalley of Salinas and Mrs. Alice Smalley of Tuscaloosa.

The newlyweds will make their home in Tuscaloosa.

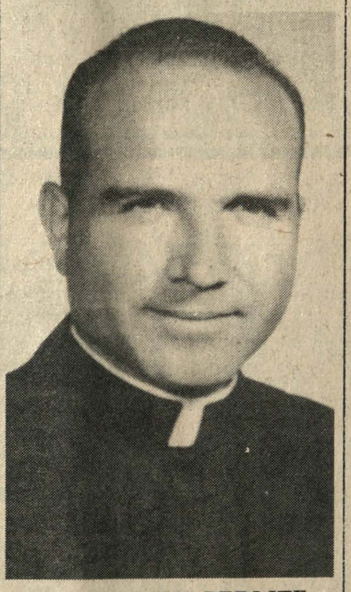
Priest celebrates 25th Jubilee

St. Thomas of Canterbury Parish, 1522 McCoy Ave., will honor their pastor, Father Paul A. Perlite, on his 25th Anniversary Jubilee on Sunday, June 27.

A reception will follow a Concelebrated Mass of Thanksgiving at 2 p.m.

Father Perlite has served at various parishes in the bay area, including St. Marks in Richmond; St. Joseph's, Alameda; St. Cyril's, Oakland; St. Paul's, St. Teresa's and Sacred Heart in San Francisco, and St. Albert the Great in Palo Alto, before his appointment as pastor of St. Thomas in 1967.

Father Perlite was born in San Francisco, the son of John and Mabel Perlite, brother of Rev. John J. Perlite, S.J.; Dr. Thomas Perlite and Mrs. Angela Donovan. He was educated at St. Brigid's Grammar School, San Francisco, St. Joseph's College, Mt. View; and St. Patrick's Seminary, Menlo Park. He was ordained at St. Mary's Cathedral by Archbishop Mitty on June 15, 1946.



FATHER PAUL PERLITE

His first assignment as pastor involved the founding of a new parish and together with the people of the area, effected the building of a parish center on the prune orchard on McCoy Avenue adjoining the San Tomas Creek.

College nursery school program starts Monday

A five-day program for nursery school personnel will be held at West Valley College beginning June 21. The course is designed to profile the school-age child and explain how a program can be tailored to his abilities and needs.

Mrs. Evelyn Weisberg, director of the child development center at West Valley will instruct the course. She will be assisted by two guest lecturers, Mrs. Linda Doig and Stan Nelson.

Mrs. Doig was a head-start teacher for three years and director of the Campbell children's center for a year and a half. She holds a home economics degree from Fresno State College.

Nelson has been general supervisor of programming for the San Jose Parks and Recreation Department for five years. He was a recreation leader in San Diego where he earned his B.A. degree in physical education at San Diego State.

Interested participants in the five-day class (which runs from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.) must register for the course at the Office of Community Services, 44 E. Latimer Ave., Campbell, room L-26,

WHIST

Orchard City Grange Youth will sponsor a public whist party on Friday, June 18, at 8 p.m. at the Grange Hall, 109 N. First St. Proceeds will be used to send the youth group to a convention.

Heart's Delight has men's night dinner Saturday

Men's Night will be the attraction when the Temple of Heart's Delight, Royal Order of Caritas, meets on Saturday, June 19, at IOOF Hall, 276 E. Campbell Ave. at 8 p.m.

The men of the Order will prepare and serve dinner at 6:30 p.m. and will provide an organ concert during the meal.

Mrs. Eleanor Brown, Exalted Matron, and Raymond Livingston, Exalted Patron, will conduct the business meeting and ritual. Kenneth Swartz, Associate Patron, is general chairman, and is planning entertainment at the conclusion of the meeting.

Mrs. Dean Adams, San Jose, and Rocky Hillyard, San Francisco, Grand Exalted Matron and Patron, of California, are expected to attend, and report on the progress of the year's charitable project, aiding in the provision of a home for mentally retarded young adults.

Plans will also be announced for a Round-up Breakfast, slated for June 27 at Wedgewood Manor.

Archaic train has daily runs

Steam passenger train service on California's historic Roaring Camp & Big Trees Narrow-Gauge Railroad at Felton, Santa Cruz County, was expanded to a daily schedule on Monday, June 14.

According to Norman Clark, president of the Roaring Camp Line, steam trains will depart from the Roaring Camp depot for Bear Mountain every hour, on the hour, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., on a regular daily basis throughout the summer months.

En route to Bear Mountain steam trains pass through primitive redwood forests and such quaint station points as Big Trees. Indian Creek, and Grizzly Flats. At Bear Mountain passengers may detrain to hike or picnic, returning to Roaring Camp on a later train.

The Roaring Camp & Big Trees Line is a descendant of the first narrow-gauge railroad organized in America and traces its origin back to 1869. Because of its archaic equipment, the RC&BTNGRR has frequently been labeled as "America's Most Backward Railroad". An excursion on the antique railroad offers passengers the rather rare opportunity to relive the sights and sounds of 19th Century America.

Using 1890 steam locomotives and passenger cars originally built for 19th Century Nevada mining camps, the RC&BTNGRR operates scheduled passenger trains on America's steepest railroad grades over trackage which runs through the heart of redwood groves first preserved for posterity back in 1867.

In 1970 more than 100,000 visitors traveled to Felton, a tiny mountain community about seventy miles south of San Francisco, to ride the old steam trains through the redwoods. Visitors planning a trip to Roaring Camp this year can obtain a free timetable

Two wedding anniversaries mark vacation of Campbell residents

MR. and MRS. ANTHONY MINARDI OF ST. LOUIS CELEBRATE 65 YEARS OF MARRIAGE

MR. and MRS. GEORGE ADAMS OF CAMPBELL TO ST. LOUIS VIA HAWAII

Marking their own 25th wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. George Adams, of 1986 Ridgeley Dr., Campbell, have just returned from a lengthy visit to St. Louis, where the parents of Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Minardi, were celebrating their 65th wedding anniversary.

The Adams' were on a five-week vacation trip and they took a round-about route to St. Louis via Hawaii with a stop-over in Las Vegas.

They flew to Hawaii where they toured the islands of Oahu, Kauai, Maui and Hawaii and on their return to the mainland they had a three-day stop-over in Las Vegas before continuing on to St. Louis.

Present in St. Louis to help Mr. and Mrs. Minardi celebrate their 65th wedding anniversary, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Adams, were the two sisters and five brothers of Mrs. Adams and their families which include 20 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams have resided in Campbell for the past four years, moving here from Stockton. Adams has been employed by Continental Can Co. for the past 30 years and was awarded a lengthy vacation because of his years of service to the company.

Good Samaritan breaks ground for addition to hospital

The Good Samaritan Hospital of Santa Clara Valley will be the scene of groundbreaking ceremonies for a $9½ million "Phase Two Addition" at 2:30 p.m. Thursday, June 17.

The public is invited to the ceremonies, and there will be tours by volunteer auxiliary available afterwards. The hospital is located at 15825 Samaritan Dr., near S. Bascom and National Aves.

Groundbreaking is scheduled on the front lawn, where the first block of construction is due to be completed in 90 days. It will house temporary entrance, admitting offices and doctors' quarters until the rest of the construction is complete, and then it will be turned into administrative offices and conference rooms.

Major portion of construction will be to the south and west of the main building, wrapping around it on several levels. It will nearly double floor space of the current hospital, making room for establishment of a diagnostic and treatment center, enlarging ancillary services and introducing new programs, and providing space for more beds and bassinets.

Currently, The Good Samaritan Hospital has a 259 bed capacity, with 45 bassinets. Upon completion of Phase Two, there will be space for 391 beds and 85 bassinets.

CRTA officers to be installed

Lucille Hassler, president of the local division, will preside at the business meeting. The program is under the direction of Bernice Arnerich, and will include vocal selections by the division's own choral group, under the direction of Mrs. Lauretta Hall.

Reservations must be made by contacting Mrs. Adele Maynard at 227-4882.

West Valley trustees adopt preliminary $23.7 million budget

Trustees of West Valley Joint Community College District Thursday night received a preliminary budget totaling $23.7 million during a special meeting.

This is an increase of $7 million from the $16.7 million budget adopted by trustees last August.

The increase is due to a number of items:

---An anticipated 10 per cent increase in student population;

---Five per cent increase in faculty;

---Operational costs of two new buildings on the Saratoga campus which will open to students this fall. They are language arts-social science and the campus center.

---Continuation of all present instructional programs and implementation of a new program of instructional aides—para-professionals—to assist instructors in the classroom.

The major increase in the budget, however, comes in the area of construction. The budget assumes state funding for the business education-student personnel-administration building and the warehouse on the Saratoga campus, acquisition of the Mission College site in Santa Clara and furniture and equipment for three buildings under or near construction. Until the state budget is adopted, however, (probably in July) funding for these projects will not be known.

The budget does not anticipate any salary increases, other than the normal in-step increases. Employees of the district have asked that salary considerations be delayed until the July 15 meeting.

The budget is built on an anticipated increase of 4 per cent in assessed valuation of the district, and no tax increase is anticipated at this time, according to James P. Hardy, superintendent-president of the college. But this determination will also have to be made in July.

The budget must go through three steps before its final adoption. Trustees must adopt the preliminary budget at their June 17 meeting, adopt a publication budget in July and hold a public hearing and adopt the final budget the first week in August.

BOYPOWER MANPOWER Boy Scout

Adult scout leaders, their wives, husbands and friends, were honored at a district-wide dinner, held recently at Camden High School. The annual Pioneer District Recognition Banquet was attended by some 400 adults who came to participate in and enjoy the event, which honored adults who guide the scouting, explorer and cub scout programs.

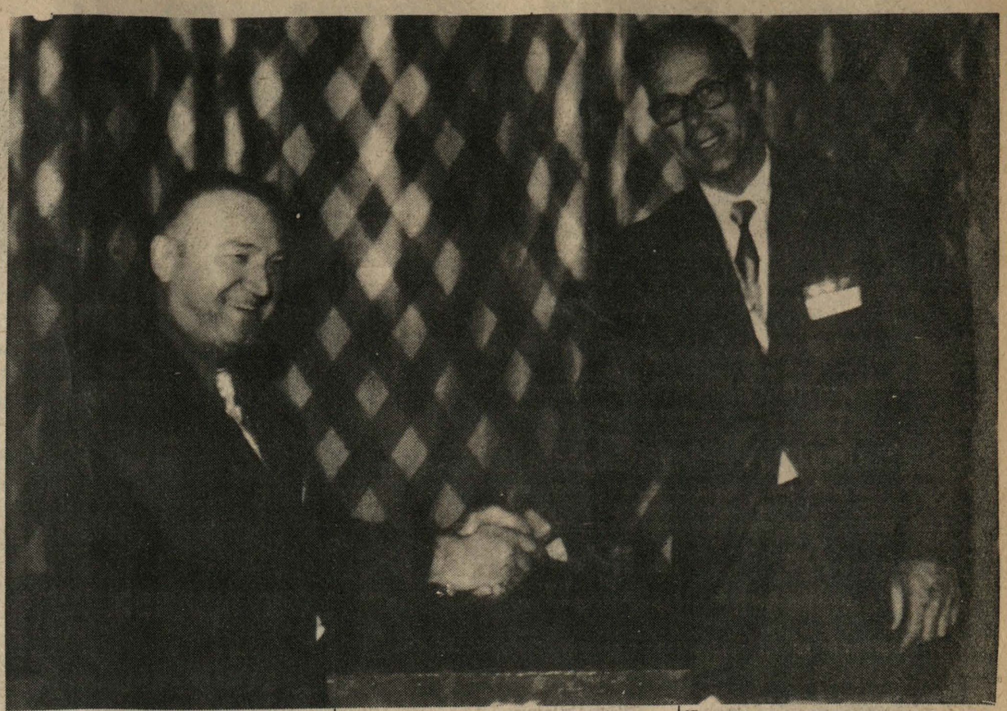
Highlight of the evening ceremony was the presentation of the Silver Beaver Award to scouter Gene S. Ellsworth who lives and works in Los Gatos. Ellsworth, recipient of many scouting honors, has been active in scouting continuously, after being "volunteered" by his wife Eunice, for an adult leadership role in a local cub pack some 12 years ago. Ellsworth has held many adult positions of leadership in the Pioneer District, including Cubmaster and Scoutmaster.

For the first time in the district's history, Awards of Merit were presented to six volunteer adult scouters. This award is the highest honor the Pioneer District can confer upon its leaders. R. Wesley Williams, Roundtable Commissioner; Robert M. Wilson, Neighborhood Commissioner; Ralph A. Storti, Scoutmaster, Troop 399; George L. Talley, Pioneer District Commissioner; George C. Wise, Area Commissioner; and Dale A. Follas, District Vice-Chairman, were recipients of these singular honors.

"Meaningful Involvement", would characterize the life styles of these six adults. All have devoted part of their lives not only to scouting, but to church, professional, service, fraternal and charitable organizations. They run the gamut from high school graduate to M.B.A.'s with their strong common bond being service to youth.

Many lesser awards were presented to both men and women scouters. 1971-72 district officers were also installed at the annual affair. Impressive closing ceremonies were conducted by Eagle Scouts John Riehl and John Quilici of Troop 336.

Pioneer District leaders for 1971-72 include Stephen Goodman, chairman, and Dale Follas and Robert Cowen, vice-chairmen.



SCOUTING HONORS---Steve Goodman, right, chairman of Pioneer District, Boy Scouts of America, congratulates Dale Follas, as he assumes duties as district vice-chairman at a recent dinner honoring adults who participate in the scouting program.

Rotary gives college scholarships

The newly formed Westgate Rotary Club recently awarded three scholarships of $100 each to high school seniors who will attend West Valley College this fall.

One scholarship was awarded to a senior from each of the three high schools served by the club.

Beverly Bakken of Westmont High School. Miss Bakken has maintained a B average at high school with art, biology, and writing listed as her favorite subjects. Her school activities include honor society, executive student council, secretary for the student body, song girl and all school plays.

Blackford High School senior Bradley Imamura maintained a B+ average while in high school and lists biological science as his favorite subject. He eventually plans to enter pre-med after studying at West Valley. His activities in high school include speech and debate, varsity tennis, math club, photo club, Latin club, Santa Clara County Explorers Health Club, honor society, California Scholastic Federation, and junior council representative.

Judith Kirkish of Prospect High School lists business and home economics as her favorite subjects. She maintained a B+ average at high school while also participating in the band, ballet, piano, organ and assisting in political campaigns. She also received a Bank of America award, and is a member of the California Scholastic Federation. She hopes to enter the secretarial-management field after completing studies at West Valley and San Jose State.

County adoption bureau seeks homes for school-age youngster

Young Cliff is not one to let adversity stand in his way.

At 10 he has shown a degree of self-determination that generally comes at a much older age.

Despite a mild heart condition that has persisted since infancy, Cliff wants to do everything his friends can.

Tackling all his endeavors with boyish enthusiasm, Cliff has become a Little Leaguer and a Boy Scout.

The people that know him say that while attaining good marks in school, his personality also has made him many friends.

But despite Cliff's wealth of determination there is one hurdle the boy can't manage without help.

Cliff is ready for adoptive parents.

The County Department of Social Services, Adoption Bureau is seeking to help Cliff clear that one barrier he is not able to surmount.

"We are needing homes for boys and girls of his school age group (eight to 12 years)," said Julie Washington, Adoption Bureau recruitment worker.

Mrs. Washington believes that Cliff's friendliness and determined need to give of himself will be an asset to any home willing to welcome the youngster.

Families interested in Cliff or youngsters his age should call 299-3311.

Dan Schwartz gets head grid coaching job

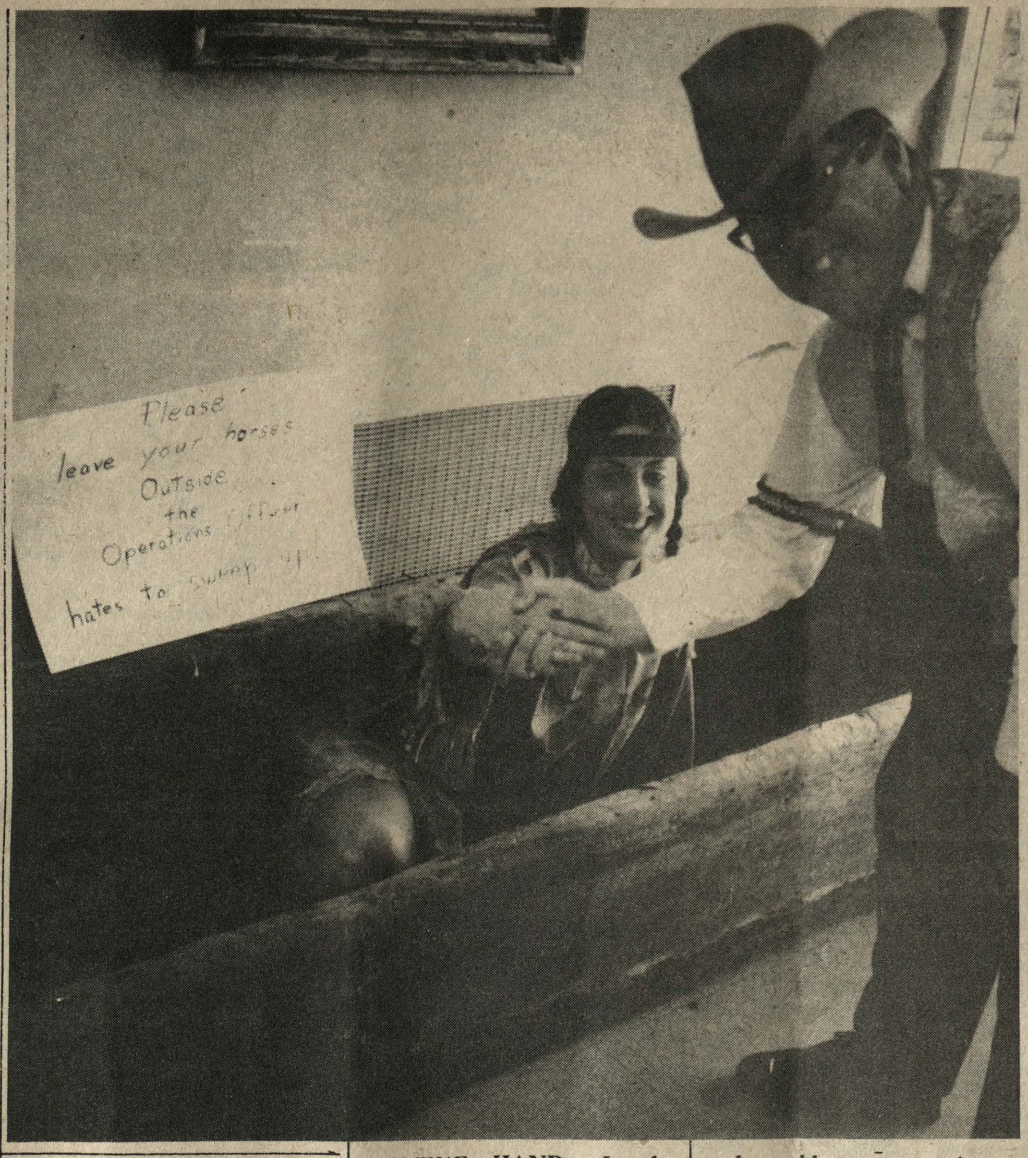
Dan Schwartz, Encina High School's head wrestling coach and assistant football coach, has been named head football coach. The school is located in Carmichael. Schwartz is a graduate of Campbell High School where he was a grid star.

Principal Donald Golden, who made the announcement, said Schwartz has been a physical education teacher at Encina for three years. He joined the Encina staff upon graduating from Sacramento State College.

At the college, Schwartz played defensive guard on the 1966 championship football team. He was also a defensive guard on the 1961 Monterey Peninsula College championship football team.

Schwartz is married and has a girl seven years old, and a boy 20 months old.

Schwartz fills the vacancy left when Don Miles, former head football coach, resigned to devote more time to classroom teaching. Miles will continue on the Encina faculty as a teacher.



HELPING HAND --- In the western movies, someone always gets thrown in the horse trough and Pocahontas (Paulette Bua) was no exception. Here Charlie Hewitt, operations officer at Campbell Branch Bank of America, lends a hand. The trough, old chests and an old stove were just a few of the many props which the bank displayed recently. Employees of the bank contributed to the "gold mining days" by wearing frontier style costumes to advertise a new account contest.

The gloves, unfortunately, had to be discarded to operate the machine. Pat and her fellow employees at the Campbell branch had a ball.

This year the number of people we serve is expected to increase by more than 105,000—about 12 new customers every hour. More people mean more demand for more gas and electricity for homes, businesses, schools, street lights, etc. Our job is to make sure this energy is available.

New systems that will help clean up and improve our environment are also increasing the demand for energy. With all these growing public needs in mind, our aim is to make sure there's always enough reliable energy available for everyone. That's why we are building new plants and must continue to provide for the future. And we know you really would not want it any other way.

Campbell man devises bike route to hospital

Russ Baker, 666 Sobrato, is a bike rider.

And, he also has occasion to go to Kaiser Hospital in Santa Clara.

So "Bake" has come up with a "share a route" description of his bicycle ride to the hospital.

He takes Campbell Avenue to Hardy (a block east of San Tomas Expressway) and proceeds north. Hardy is a residential street, as are most of the ones on the route.

When he comes to Latimer Avenue, he jogs left half a block to Llewellyn to Hamilton. Crossing Hamilton, he makes another left jog to Millich.

Unfortunately, many of these streets don't align and at Valley Forge, he must jog again left to Phelps, up to Williams. At Williams another jog, this time to the right to Cypress.

This is one of the longest straight stretches in the route, for as "Bake" has discovered there is a pedestrian overcrossing at Junipero Serra Freeway (Highway 280) which is used by school children. Riding a bike is not permitted over a pedestrian crossing, but it's an easy slope to walk the bike over.

Reaching Pruneridge, one travels to the left to Kiely Boulevard and straight down Kiely to the hospital.

"Bake" says to "ride carefully on Pruneridge and Kiely", Boulevard and straight down Kiely to the hospital.

"Bake" says to "ride carefully down Pruneridge and Kiely", but he advises that "the rest of the route is traffic-free except for crossings."

The trip is six miles one way, but at Stevens Creek, there are outdoor tables by a small eating place, providing a good resting spot.

"Bake's" idea is to stress safety. Many places in and around Campbell are accessible by bike. Does anyone know an exceptional route to the PruneYard? To Kirkwood Plaza?

Are there other places which can be easily reached by two-wheelers?

"Bake" and other bike riders would like to know.

The young in heart are turning to bicycles to get the best out of life. You see them everywhere . . . happy, healthy people who know the benefits of regular exercise.

"We ought to replace the automobile with bicycles . . . it would be better for our coronaries, our disposition, and certainly our finances."

"I think the bicycle is one of the great unappreciated vehicles for good, wholesome exercise that can be continued to a considerable age."
. . . Dr. W. W. Bauer, director emeritus, Bureau of Health Education, American Medical Association.*

"FAMILY STORE" GOES MODERN---Shown above is the new home of the MOD Market in the store formerly operated by the Key Market and originally the Lee Bros. in the Campbell Center between Campbell Ave. and Hamilton on Winchester Blvd.

Partners in the venture are two family groups, Dick and LaVaghn Brooks and Jim and Mildred Norman. Others involved in the management are Steve Charvez, grocery manager and Rick Brooks, student at U.C. Santa Barbara, as produce manager.

Dick Brooks has for 35 years been a familiar figure in the food business in the Gilroy area, where he and his family have resided since 1953. Dick still operates a thriving family-type market in Seaside in Monterey county.

The new store will have much of the "homey", intimate features of the earlier family type stores combined with the best features of today's modern supermarket operation. Personalized service will be stressed, with such features as "carry-out" service to the customer's car.

In addition to the advertised specials, the store will feature throughout, the lowest prevailing shelf prices on all non-advertised items.

Judo training for girls brings travel and trophies

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Fitzpatrick, 3929 Middletown Ct., have some unusual daughters.

They're judo experts.

They aren't judo experts, as you might think, because mom and dad made "boys" out of them, for they have two active brothers, Jake, 20, and Terry, 13, who tried judo, but found they preferred other activities.

No, they are judo experts, because they enjoy it.

Pat, 18, is a student at West Valley College.

Carol, 16, is a student at Campbell High School.

Colleen, 12, and Margo, 10, attend Campbell Elementary.

Pat and Carol recently earned their Black Belts, and are assistant instructors at Pacific School of Judo.

Recently, the two older girls, who are partners, went to St. Louis, Missouri, to compete in the Women's National Kata Competition. They won third place in Junokata, a pre-arranged group of attacking and defending movements.

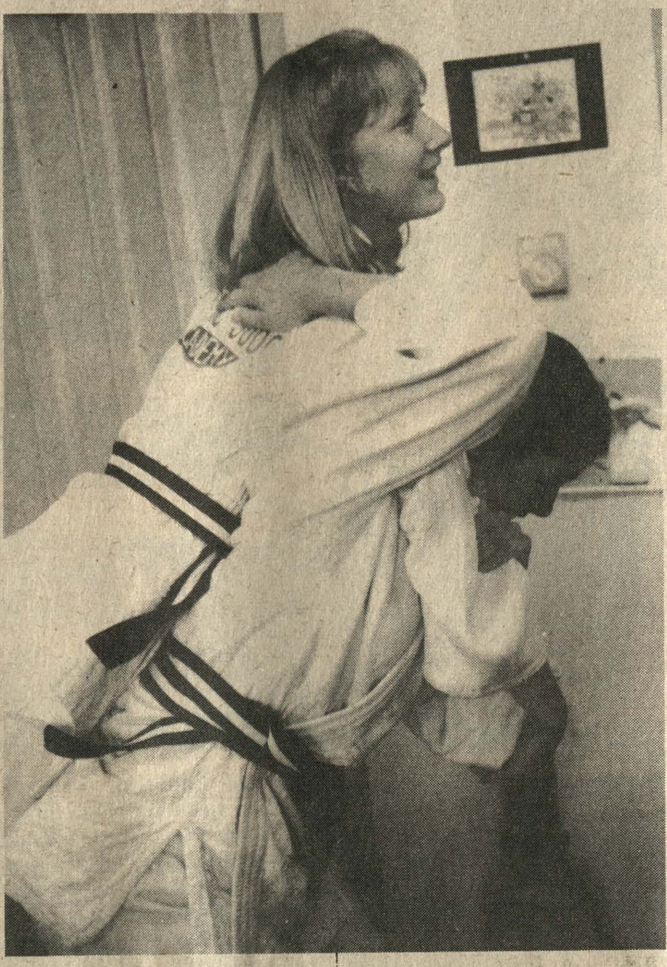
In a recent Raddoci Contest at Castro Valley, Pat won first in Black Belt's division and Margo won a first also. Carol wasn't able to compete.

Carol and Pat now are looking forward to going to a "meet" in Los Angeles in September.

The girls don't just devote their attention to judo. Both Carol and Pat have part-time jobs, Carol at the Dairy Belle and Pat at the House of Fabrics.

Sisters Colleen and Margo are third degree Brown Belts and Pat and Carol have four more degrees of Black Belt to earn.

We've no doubt they will.



UP, UP AND OVER---Carol and Pat Fitzpatrick were concerned when this picture was taken because they said they really weren't doing this "throw" correctly and another judo person would know it. We thought they looked great, though, and were much impressed with their skills. The two girls are assistant instructors at Pacific School of Judo.
